DEFENDANT: DARYL IAN EVANS

CASE NUMBER: 3:18cr111

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant must make himself available for substance abuse testing (with emphasis on alcohol) at least once during the first 15 days of supervision and no fewer than twice thereafter and treatment, in-patient or out-patient, if requested by the probation officer. The defendant shall make a co-payment for treatment services not to exceed $25.00 per month, which is determined by the defendant's ability to pay.
- 2. The defendant shall seek and maintain employment throughout the period of supervision and/or participate in a verifiable, certified vocational services program as directed by the probation officer.
- 3. The defendant shall perform 100 hours of community service with an agency approved in advance by the probation officer within the first two (2) years of supervision. The Court will substitute each hour spent in a verified, certified course of Job Training for one hour of Community Service on a 1:1 ratio.
- 4. The defendant is to receive a mental health assessment and counseling, if deemed necessary, in the areas of anger management and alcohol issues. The defendant shall make a co-payment for treatment services not to exceed $25 per month, which is determined by the defendant's ability to pay.
- 5. The defendant is to support his minor children through a valid court ordered child support order. The United States Probation Office is to assist the defendant in entering into such an order.
- 6. The defendant is to be enrolled in a course of moral reconation/thinking for a change/cognitive behavioral therapy/critical thinking skills.
- 7. The defendant is to be screened for Reentry Court.
- 8. The defendant is to establish contact with the Montgomery County Office of Ex-Offender Reentry within 3 calendar days of beginning supervision for possible enrollment in the Reentry Career Alliance Academy.
- 9. The defendant is not to drive without a valid driver's license.
- 10. The defendant is to attend verified AA meetings at the direction of the probation officer.
